Extract

Report of the Committee constituted to go into the question of re-distribution of territorial and pecuniary jurisdiction of Courts in the State.

"The people of Arsikere Taluk have been agitating for the establishment of a Munsiff-Magistrate's Court at Arsikere. Some parts of Arsikere Taluk are 40 to 60 miles away from Hassan. Arsikere Town has grown rapidly and is an important trade centre and a railway junction. The necessity for a court at this place has become more urgent with the abolition of the Bench Magistrate's Court. The Committee, therefore, recommends the establishment of a Munsiff-Magistrate's Court (invested with First Class Magisterial powers) at Arsikere.

* * *

There is, therefore, no doubt that the proposed Munsiff-Magistrate's Court at Arsikere will have sufficient work."
